LABOR TO GET HEARING ON ROAD BILL

Owens Boosts Measure for Employment of Convicts on Highways.

The Senate Roads and Highways Committee was on the verge of passing out with favorable recommendations the Owens bill calling for the use of convict labor on state roads yesterday afternoon when Senator Luce of San Diego interposed with a request that organized labor be given a hearing. The hearing was set for next Thursday.

Senators Campbell of San Luis Obispo, Chandler of Fresno and Cogswell of Los Angeles spoke ardently in favor of the measure and Campbell moved its favorable recommendation. Cogswell said it was desirable because it would take out of competition with free labor a large number of skilled furniture makers.

LOCAL WEEKLY TO MAKE BIG DISCLOSURES

Richmond is soon to have a weekly publication, to be called "The Forum," which will be devoted, according to its publisher, to "the purification of the local political atmosphere."

The publisher of the new weekly, which will be printed in Richmond and which will make its first appearance next week, is Juan L. Kennon, veteran newspaper man.

Kennon said that The Forum will be devoted chiefly to comment and timely editorials on conditions and occurrences in Richmond.

Some of the incidents, intrigues and combinations that exist will be given plentiful and needed publicity in The Forum, declares Kennon. The paper will take an active part in the coming municipal election.

FINED $20 FOR HOTEL STEERING

At his tridl in Police Judge Lindsey court yesterday afternoon, W. E. McFall was convicted of soliciting trade for a San Francisco hotel on a Santa Fe ferryboat, which is a violation of a city and state ordinance. Although McFall pleaded not guilty to the charge against him, enough evidence and testimony was produced before Lindsay to lead him to decide that the defendant was guilty.

He was ordered to pay a fine of $20. This money was paid by McFall's uncle, J. G. McFall, proprietor of the Hotel Virginia, located near Third and Townsend streets in San Francisco. The uncle of the accused testified that his nephew was not in his employ.

In McFall's possession when arrested by a Santa Fe office was found a large number of cards, descriptive of the advantages of two San Francisco hostelries.

ORGANIZER FOR COUNTY TO BE ASKED

Resolution to Be Introduced Before State Building Trades Council.

Declaring that conditions in the upper end of the county are in an unsettled condition, the Contra Costa Building Trades Council has instructed Delegate W. M. Pennington, who will represent the building trades men at the state convention to be held in San Francisco next week, to introduce a resolution providing for the sending of a state organizer to Martinez.

The big Shell job, which will employ hundreds of men when it is fully under way, is declared by local labor men to look bad.

The Western Pipe and Stell Company, which has the contract for a large part of the tank work, is notoriously unfair to organized labor. The Petroleum Iron Company of Sharon, Pa., which has the contract for the erection of 15 big tanks, is known as a fair concern in the handling of its "field work."

The anti-picketing ordinance introduced before the board of trustees at Martinez and to be passed upon at the Monday meeting of the trustees, is taken to be an indication that an attempt will be made to make the big job "open shop."

Only two union men from Richmond are employed on the work.

Five union boilermakers have quit the employ of the Lacy Manufacturing Company, J. A. Marrick, superintendent for that company, declared when they quit that if necessary he would run his job open shop.

"I have done it before," he said, "and I guess I can do it again. If necessary a high board fence will be built around the whole job by the Shell people and the work in the enclosure will proceed uninterrupted.

A great part of the men employed on the work are imported scabs from Los Angeles.

HAS 2 WOMEN JAILED FOR SWEARING

Young Ladies Usurp Privilege of Men and Go to City Prison for It.

On the complaint of Mrs. Florence Sump, resident of 214 Barrett avenue, two young women, Mrs. Hines, aged 23, and Miss Alice Woods, aged 21, were arrested late yesterday on charges of disturbing the peace. Mrs. Sump alleges that the two women, who live next door to her, have repeatedly used vulgar language.

She stated to Police Judge Lindsay, while swearing out the complaint, that she has several young children and that she is averse to having them hear the alleged vulgar and profane remarks.

The women were taken into custody on Jane Doe warrants by Officers Betts, Eigenman and Kraemer.

They were lodged in the city jail last night, and will be arraigned in Judge Lindsay's court this morning.

FONSECO GETS SIX YEARS FOR MANSLAUGHTER

Finds Concord Slayer Guilty By Jury of Which Richmond Man Is Foreman.

Joseph Fonseca was found guilty of manslaughter on the fourth ballot cast by the jury at Martinez yesterday and the defendant waiving time for sentence, Judge Conley immediately sentenced him to six years in San Quentin.

His attorneys applied for probation, but this was refused. The first ballot by the jury was 11 for manslaughter and 1 for second degree murder, and it continued thus to the final. Max Michaels of Richmond was foreman.

Precisely at 12:18 o'clock yesterday afternoon the jury retired for its deliberation.

Judge Conley stated that murder in the first degree, murder in the second degree and manslaughter were possible. He created quite a stir when he stopped short while reading the instructions and announced that something had been omitted by the stenographer.

"She has neglected to include in the punishment for first degree murder the death penalty," announced the court.

The closing arguments were brief, but covered the evidence fully.

Throughout the whole trial Fonseca has sat as one little concerned in the proceedings and even after the jury filed out he did not appear to be nervous.

Thugs Hold Up Priest and Get 30 Cents

VALONA, March 12.—While returning from a mission to a sick member of his parish at Port Costa, Rev. Father F. R. Clyne, who has been taking the place of Father Kennedy since he entered the hospital, was held up by two men, who demanded what valuables he had.

"I am a Catholic priest and have nothing," answered Father Clyne, but the two thugs refused to be pacified because of this fact and started searching the priest.

There was but 20 cents on his person and this was taken and the thugs proceeded on their way. Father Clyne told of the affair very calmly today, but has decided to not swear out a warrant for the men.

"They probably needed that 20 cents worse than I did," he remarked to the members of his parish, who asked about the hold-up.

Don't Sign Any More Than 3 Petitions for Candidates

Although it may not be generally known, one citizen cannot, under the law, legally sign the petition of more than three candidates for councilmanic honors at the coming municipal election. This developed yesterday while City Clerk Faris and City Attorney Hall were holding a little talkfest over legal aspects of the coming election. If one person signs the petition of more than three candidates his signature on all of the petitions will not be valid.

Inasmuch as there are three councilmen to be elected, citizens cannot sign the petitions of more people than will be elected to office.

TOURIST SEIZED WITH FIT IN LIMITED

S. G. Graham, resident of Pittsburgh, Pa., was seized with a fit of insanity when the Santa Fe overland train arrived in this city yesterday. He tried to leap through a window of the car he was riding in when the train reached the Macdonald avenue station.

After trying to attack colored waiters in the dining car, following his unsuccessful attempt to jump through the window, he was subdued by officers. Graham was taken to the Harbor Emergency hospital in San Francisco to undergo treatment. He will be sent to the home of relatives in Portland.

The boat was held up three hours on account of the accident. When repairs were made the Luckenback proceeded to the wharf at Point Orient, where it is taking on a cargo of wine.

JAILED FOR FAILURE TO PROVIDE

Thomas G. Rogers, Standard Oil pipefitter, was arrested yesterday morning by Sergeant Phil Barry on a complaint sworn to by his wife, Mrs. Mary Rogers, who charged him with failure to provide for his four minor children, whose ages range from one and a half years up. Rogers' bail has been set at $1000, which he has been unable to furnish.

The couple have been living apart for some time. Rogers has been boarding at the Santa Fe Hotel.

City Attorney Hall, who is superintendent of the Social Service Bureau, declared yesterday that Mrs. Rogers has been left in destitute circumstances by her husband. Several times the charitable body has kept Mrs. Rogers and her children from starving by providing food, when there was not a slice of bread in the little home on Second street.

Rogers has been in the police court several times within the past year. He is alleged to be addicted to the drink habit.

Just after the meeting of the Woodmen of the World was dismissed last night the Women of Woodcraft entered the hall and surprised the men with the announcement of a banquet all prepared.

The hall was beautifully decorated with shamrock. At the table Rev. Skinner was toast master. Council Commander Black made the principal talk.

Tonight the drill team of the Women of Woodcraft will give a dance in the W. O. W. Hall. The committee in charge of the affair: Mesdames Wyatt (captain), Curwin, Kessell, Wright, Chamberlain, Fulton, Eggerth, Fanning and Bawles.

ODD CASE TO COME BEFORE HIGH COURT

Appeal in Palos Case May Be Argued at Martinez Monday.

That the case of Mike Palos, proprietor of a Pullman rooming house, who was found guilty of a charge of gambling in the court of Police Judge Lindsay by a jury after Lindsay has instructed the jury to find the defendant not guilty, is the second of its kind in the state, is the statement of Attorney C. S. Hannum, who is preparing to argue his appeal in the Superior Court when the matter comes up, which will probably be on Monday.

Hannum stated last night that only one similar case is reported in the California court reports.

When the evidence at Palos' trial was all in, Lindsay told the jury to find him not guilty. The jury disregarded the instructions of the court, and returned a verdict of guilty. Several days later Lindsay turned down the motion of Attorney Hannum that the verdict of guilty be set aside, and Palos was fined $150.

Then Hannum filed motion of his appeal to the Superior Court.

Hannum also declares that the wording of the complaint against Palos was faulty, inasmuch as he was charged with playing 21, when he should have bene charged with playing 21 for money in violation of the law.

HALL SITE OPPOSITION IS GROWING

New Organization Holds First Meeting; To Make Public Personnel.

Though names are still being withheud, the first meeting of the new organization of prominent Richmond men, which is to boost for the development of this city and to oppose such antics as the recent "City Hall" foolishness, in which most of the city officials capered when Wall pulled the string, was held yesterday.

Seven prominent business men are behind the new organization. When permanent organization has been effected, within a day or two, the officers and backers of the organization will be made public.

In the meantime the universal resentment against the Wall-City Council frame-up to put the City Hall on the Harbor Center Land Company's pastures is growing rapidly.

MRS. ARNSTEIN GETS DECREE

Superior Judge Latimer issued a final decree of divorce yesterday to Mrs. Martha Arnstein from her husband, Henry Arnstein, thus closing one of the most prominent divorce cases ever on the local calendar.

The decree carried with it a complete title to the 1000 acre ranch near Alamo, known as the Hattie B. Robbins' property, the custody of the daughter, Alberta Arnstein.

The suit was first filed in 1914, and on March 9 of that year the wife obtained the interlocutory decree on the grounds of extreme cruelty.

Arnstein is prominent in the Oakland and Antioch railroad, controlling a large block of stock. The beautiful home place, which Mrs. Arnstein gets, is known all over the county. Arnstein allowed his wife the divorce without contesting.

LEAGUE PLANS MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN

Suggestion to Disband Civic Club Opposed By All Members.

Members of the Civic League, who gathered at the home of Mrs. John Glover at 330 Nevin avenue yesterday, decided not to disband the organization, but to institute a determined fight for a large membership. At the meeting, and at previous sessions, there was some talk of disbanding, but when it was brought up officially it met with the disapproval of all of the members.

Under present plans of the Civic League, the members are pledged to work to advance the city, and to take an active interest in the coming municipal election.

At the session yesterday plans were made to keep up civic work.

There will be another meeting of the organization a week from Friday, at which plans for an aggressive membership campaign will be taken up.

The committee appointed to investigate jail conditions, as regards women, stated it found that women who were brought to the Richmond jail were well cared for by a matron, and that the accommodations were good.

The Civic Club is making tentative plans for a campaign to be instituted soon against the fly.

A small technical error in the wording of Moore's petition was corrected when City Clerk Faris called his attention to the technicality.

There are now two candidates who are known to be in the race. The first to file was John Hartnett.

CONVICT LABOR FOR HIGHWAYS.

A bill providing for convict labor on the construction of state highways is up before the Legislature. Senator Owens is one of the sponsors for the bill.

It is said that the bill has been drafted particularly to solve the question of building mountain roads. The referendum vote of 1911 provided for the building of approximately 2000 miles of trunk lines and 2000 miles of lateral roads connecting county seats to trunk lines. The money provided, says C. F. Stern, one of the drafters of the bill, is not adequate to solve the mountain lateral problem. The mountain lateral problem lies mainly in the east of the Sierra-Nevada mountains and is to connect the county seats of the trans-Sierra counties to the valley trunk lines.

Stern, in his argument for the biil, says that the use of convict labor will solve the problem. In answer to the natural question, "Why not put the unemployed to work on the roads?" he says:

"The experience of the State Highway Commission in attempting to use the unemployed from the streets of San Francisco on highway work in El Dorado county shows that this character of population is not suited for, nor will it do, mountain road work."

He says that the building of the roads will benefit the unemployed because it will open up a territory of cheap lands, "thus closing the gap between the unemployed congested in the cities and the land itself."

This seems to be weird reasoning. If the unemployed, labeled "this character of population" by Sterns, won't work on the highways, it doesn't seem likely that they will desert the big cities to tackle "cheap land" with no experience, nad no money to buy it in the first place.

Convict labor and roads, merely means the competition of workingmen working for only grub and shelter, with free labor, demanding more than that.

If the mountain roads are at all worth building, they are worth paying labor with which to build them.

The talk of opening up new country as a solution of the unemployed problem is silly. What chance will John Jones, living in the city on $3 a day when he can get work and on wind when he can't get work, have to enter the new country and become a landowner? And what chance will the migratory worker, grappling with unemployment every winter and a part of the rest of the year, have to enter the new country?

Organized Labor is strongly opposed to forcing free labor to compete with convict labor. That is why Senator Owens, who made such beautiful written promises to the unions, is for it.

FROM BOSTON.

Now and again a small bit of news is printed that seems to be especially dedicated to those who believe in Things as They Are. This is one, for instance:

BOSTON, MARCH 12.—Thirty-three per cent of the girls employed in twenty-six department stores in this state receive less than $6 a week, according to an announcement by the Massachusetts Minimum Wage Commission today. The commission's investigation, which covered stores employing about 6000 girls, showed also that another third of these employes received from $6 to $8 a week and that the remainder, who received more than $8, were mostly engaged in office work.

Fifty-three per cent of the girls employed by 5 and 10 cent stores receive less than $5 a week, the commission reported.

ILLNESS CAUSES POSTPONEMENT

Because of the illness of Rev. C. A. Wilson, pastor of the Calvary Baptist church, the Ministerial Union did not hold its meeting at the First Baptist church yesterday morning. Out of respect to Rev. Wilson, the ministers adjourned their session until next Tuesday morning.

Some time ago Rev. Wilson submitted to a minor operation, and he has not fully recovered from its effects yet. He is expected to be about in a few days.

LAST TIME TODAY THE COUNTRY BOY

Out of the country into the atmosphere of crowded humanity of a big city is the experience of the leading character in Edgar Selwyn's drama, "The Country Boy," now showing at the Richmond theater. To do this he leaves the pure country girl and in trying to win a fortune for her he is dragged into the festive and degrading life of the metropolis.

How he finally wins out over his temptations, frees himself of the influences of the whirling and gay life about him and returns to his true love is a great and interesting tale portrayed in the Lasky production.

A real laugh is found in the Keystone comedy, "Hushing the Sandal," and besides this will be seen again the one reel, "Billy's Medal."

WAGE TENDENCY WILL BE DOWNWARD FOR YEAR

The number of unemployed is being rapidly reduced, but with the reduction in unemployment will come wage reductions and, unfortunately, the workers of the country must accept a reduced wage as the investors of the country must accept a reduced return on their investmetnts in the form of dividends. On the whole, the labor world is at peace with the employing world and the number of serious strikes is very small. Wage reductions have been put into effect by some concerns, notably in lumber, cotton, steel, paper and embroidery lines. It is possible there may be a few wage increases, but the tendency for the remainder of the year will naturally be toward lower wages in those lines where wages have already gotten beyond a point justified by present conditions.—Commercial Bank Review.

Man wants but little here on earth and usually gets a good deal less than he wants.

LOCAL PASTOR INJURES KNEE

Rev. C. S. Linsley, pastor of hte Trinity Episcopal church in this city, has been confined to his home at 554 Golden Gate avenue for several days as a result of a bad fall he suffered early in the week while walking down Van Ness avenue in San Francisco. Linsley's knee was injured in the fall, and while the injury was not serious, it was painful, and has prevented him from being about on his pastoral duties. He expects to be able to walk today or Sunday.

MEESE HERE TO TAKE CHARGE OF THE LOCAL ASSESSMENTS

County Assessor George Meese arrived in Richmond from Martinez yesterday to take personal charge of the corps of field deputies in the work of assessing the property in this city and its immediate environs. Owing to the fact that there has been considerable building done in Richmond in the past year, it is probable the city will show a large increase in assessments.

SACRAMENTO LABEL LEAGUE ACTIVE

The committee appointed by the Union Label League at its last meeting to endeavor to persuade a certain store to have its printing done in Sacramento, report having visited the firm. They stated that they were most cordially received, and that the gentleman in charge promised that in future all the printed matter that they will need will be printed by Sacramento firms. This action on the part of the Label League shows what can be accomplished through organized effort. It also is an indication of what may be accomplished for the union label if a little effort and care is exercised. All union men should insist in having the union label on everything that they buy. In that way there would be much accomplished, and there would soon be little sold in town that did not bear the label.—Sacramento Tribune.

BIG MASK BALL TONIGHT AT '49 CAMP

The third night of the '49 Camp being held at the Richmond Skating Rink under the auspices of the local post of Spanish War Veterans was well attended, despite the weather and counter attractions. In the final prize waltz contest, George Kitchen and Mrs. Minnie Stiver won first prize. Kitchen was presented with a handsome military set and Mrs. Stiver with a beautiful cut glass dish. E. Goodfriend and Mrs. Gordon won the second prize, Goodfriend being presented with a cigar case and Mrs Gordon with a marble clock.

Fortunes passed across the gaming tables. And much "fire water" was consumed. But the money was fake money and the "fire water" was "pop."

The big mask ball is to be held tonight and will eclipse all of the other events in connection with the camp.

Handsome prizes will be given to the best costumed lady, the best costumed gentleman, the most original costume worn by lady and gentlemen will win another fine prize, and the best dressed couple will be awarded a valuable prize. Serpentine and confetti will help to make the dance enjoyable.

HAS HIS ARM X-RAY PHOTOED

As a result of a fractured arm, sustained on Wednesday night when he fell in front of his residence at 330 Nevin avenue, Walter Glover, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Glover, journeyed to Oakland with his mother last night to have the injured arm photographed with an X-ray. Dr. Martin, the Oakland medico, who photographed the lad's arm, stated that it should heal rapidly.

Immediately after the accident Dr. Margaret Deininger set the arm. It was fractured at the elbow.

ORGANIZED LABOR

BOSTON PLASTERS AND LATHERS TO ENFORCE 5 DAY WEEK ON MAY 1

May 1 the union plasterers and lathers of Boston will inaugurate the five-day work week.

It is evident that the new rule will not be limited to these two trades, as the carpenters have already issued notices that they will work only five days a week unless paid extra wages beginning June 1st. Other unions in the building trades are expected to take similar action soon, on the ground that they are all so closely related that their hours of labor ought to be uniform.

The 32 unions affiliated with the Boston Carpenters' District Council have issued notices to all employers and architects, telling of the establishment of a five-day work week for the carpenters, and a wage scale of 61 cents an hour. No work is to be performed after 5 p. m. Friday unless paid for as double time, or at the rate of $1.22 an hour. These changes are to take effect June 1.

Joseph F. Twomey, secretary of Carpenters' District Council, commenting on this change, said:

"This move on the part of the Carpenters' Council is not a new idea. The Plasterers' unions and the Lathers' unions have already notified employers of a similar change in their working schedule and wage rate, May 1, a full month before the carpenters' does. The engineers and other unions have discussed this same proposition, and I think that many of the unions will follow suit. As far as the employers are concerned, many of them have already shown their acquiescence with the five-day rule. I do not believe that there will be any serious opposition"

At the convention of the California State Building Trades Council that convenes in San Francisco Monday, the six-hour day will be one of the important things to be taken up.

GOSH FELLERS! WE'RE GOING TO PLAY PETALUMA A SERIES

Petaluma and Richmond will tangle in a five-game series this season. Local fans may be positively assured of that. Announcement was made yesterday, which was duly censored by Scout O'Hara, to the effect that William Luce, who lost his hirsute adornment several years ago while trying to figure ways and means to keep Richmond on the baseball map, and Manager Healy, are dickering with each other to arrange for hte series.

When we said dickering we meant it. The matter has not passed the dickering stage as yet. Of course both managers, being wise in the ways of the world and knowing the desires of their fan constituency, know that there must be a series. A baseball season without a series with Petaluma would seem like life on an oasis.

There will be five games in the series. Luce said yesterday that the first game will be played on some Sunday in April. The date of the game he doesn't know any more than you do. The series will extend through the months of April and May, and may go into June.

Of course two games will be on the home lot, and of course two sessions will be staged on the ball yard in the chicken metropolis.

The place where the fifth game will be played will be decided later.

Glad to hear Richmond and Petaluma will tangle, aren't you? Been expecting the news for some time haven't you? Kinda skeptical about whether the Elks can beat the Chickens this year, huh? Well, they can and will.

Babe Hollis has no terrors for the Elk herd this year. He didn't look invincible to them last Sunday. If memory serves u sright the locals got a couple or three blows off Mister Hollis during the short time he pitched Sunday.

The Elks are admittedly a faster club this year than last. Petaluma will have to travel some to trim the "hum town" boys four times straight this season.

MARTINEZ FANS PEP UP AND GET READY FOR BIG OPENING

(Martinez Standard.)

Life took on a new aspect today when the familiar crack of willow against horsehide was heard in various sections of the town, and twelve men with that old pirate of baseball, Steve Mersich, at the helm, began to straighten out the muss created by the February storm, so that we can sit comfortably during the warm days and watch McNamara's colts romp away with the visitors.

Put it down in your new straw lid that things are happening now that Jupiter Pluvius has finished his weeping and Old Sol has come into his own. Yes, they're fixing up the diamond and everywhere you wandered today it was baseball chatter on either hand.

Things look mighty bright this year for the baseball bugs. Some team has been outlined by "Silent Joe" McNamara and the boys began to take the winter kinks out by short practices everywhere.

Should the drainage from the hills be sufficiently subdued by the first of the coming week, there will be a bunch of youngsters out on the grounds every evening. Two weeks from next Sunday marks the opening of the season, and that is none too far away for the spring practice to begin.

"Chuck" Wilcox has handed the "au revoir" mit to Father Rheumatism and began to loosen up a bit today. Bob Cleek was seen taking to the roads and declares he is now down to 180 pounds. Jackson, the last little catcher, has some worries. He works out at the American Oriental, which is going to close shop. He will have to find another berth.

Latest word from Arlett is that he will be with us and hop it over. The spitball king will sure be a tower of strength to the team. Joe has kind of got the team lined up in his mind, but until the bait is actually swallowed he refuses to divulge the names.

Brentwood, Concord and Crockett are also preparing their line-ups and believe me, bo, there is going to be some real lively doings down on that baseball lot when the season gets under way.

Concord Lands Jimmy Byrnes

Concord will jump on the baseball map with a vengeance this year. The up-county town will have no other than that famous legislator, Jimmy Byrnes catching on its team this season. Byrnes is now working out up at Sacramento, and his friends who have seen him in action declare that he has regained a lot of his old time zip and ginger.

Byrnes in the heyday of his career was a sweet catcher and just good enough to hold jobs on several Coast League teams. He jumped into fame several weeks ago when he declared that in his capacity as assemblyman from San Francisco that he proposed to introdnce a bill to pension ball players who have seen ten years' continuous service on California teams in the Pacific Coast League.

SUNDAY'S GAME NOT CALLED OFF YET

It will have to rain much harder than it did yesterday and last night in order to induce Manager Bill Luce to call off the scheduled battle between the Oaks and Elks Sunday. The slight sprinkle did not affect the diamond at all. Now that the park has been leveled and sanded, a heavy rain could not keep the ball players away for very long, as there are no depressions for the water to gather in.

As far as known at this time the game will be played. Rain seldom hangs on for very long at one time at this season of the year, and all the fans have hopes that Sunday will be another of those clear, pleasant spring days that put pep into the birds.

With the date of the battle only a little over 24 hours off, there is much speculation up and down the Rue de Macdonald as to whether the Elks can beat the army of the invasion. Every man jack that wears an Elk uni is confident of the outcome. Christian's Christians have trimmed the White Sox a couple of times, but if they are to decapitate the horns of the Elk herd they will have to play a stellar brand of ball.

After all is said and written it is going to be a battle worth seeing, and those fans who miss it will probably kick themselves for the rest of the season.

It will be the best club in the bushes against a class A organization, and what will happen at those First street grounds Sunday afternoon will undoubtedly be worth several times the price of admission.

March 19—Chicken dinner of First M. E. church at 120 Washington avenue.

WINEHAVEN WILL TACKLE FAST BUNCH

Melrose's fast diamond will be the scene of some baseball session Sunday afternoon, when Elmo Pinkerton's Winehavens clash with the Ambrose Tailors. The winemakers are in a ferocious mood and claim they can trim any horde of clothes makers that ever cavorted on the diamond. The record of Ambrose's gang shows his club is not to be sneezed at, but one rather to be feared.

At any rate, fur will fly and the old jaz and ginger will be very much in evidence when the gong rings for the opening frame Sunday afternoon.

Pinkerton and Thurber will do mound duty for the Calwas with Moss on the receiving end.

Martinez is kidding itself into the belief that it will have a ball club this year. Well, we have to give Joe McNamara credit for being a gamester, though it must be said that as a baseball team Martinez looks like a fine bunch of hockey players.

Got a grudge against one of the ball players on the local aggregation. Think we'll take it out by starting a poetry contest on him. Good way to get even, huh?

Terry Magilligan says it's all framed up for Ritchie and Welsh to go the 20-round route in Reno on July 4. Hope it is. We'll be pleased to be a sucker and be among those present at the ringside.

Union men, we are all doing it, sending out suits to Mayer's American Cleaning Co. to be cleaned, pressed or repaired. Phone 452. 1116 Macdonald ave. 8-17-tf—adv.

SPORTING GOULASH

Bill Luce denies that he is going to wear B. V. D.'s on Monday when he delivers his speech telling the employes of the Pacific Gas & Electric Co. how to pay ball. Bill says it's still a bit too frigid to allow him to make use of his light underwear.

Well, y'know, there's only several hundred thousand out here to see the Exposition, and they all say it's fair. Ye Gods. Yes, it's original. If you got it the first time it's all right, but if you had to stop and figure it out, we swear we'll never do it again.

"BALDIE" MILLWARD IS ONE LOCAL ENGLISHMAN WHO SAYS THAT THE ASSOCIATED AND UNITED PRESS REPORTS ABOUT RITCHIE BEATING WELSH MUST BE ALL WRONG. MILLWARD PREFERS TO TAKE THE WORD OF BAT MASTERSON, THE ONE LONE CRITIC, WHO SAID THAT WALSH WAS ENTITLED TO A DRAW WITH THE SAN FRANCISCO LAD. MAYBE RITCHIE'S CONTENTION THAT HE WAS ROBBED OF THE CHAMPIONSHIP IN LONDON LAST JULY, WHEN HE FOUGHT UNDER THE ENGLISH RULES, IS RIGHT. ANYHOW, HE STAGED A PRETTY COMEBACK, AND WE BELIEVE THAT MISTER WELSH OF WALES WAS OUTCLASSED, DESPITE THE HEATED ASSERTIONS TO THE CONTRARY MADE BY OUR FRIEND FROM ST. GEORGE'S ISLE.

When Wolverton and Christian start to cut down their squads in earnest there will be more promising young bush ham-and-eggers running loose than you can crowd into one ball yard. And Luce is already loaded to the guards with fast talent.

No, Mister Fan, the game between the Elks and Oaks has not been called off. 'Twould make you pretty sore if it was, wouldn't it?
